

FIRST DESTINATION SURVEY RESULTS

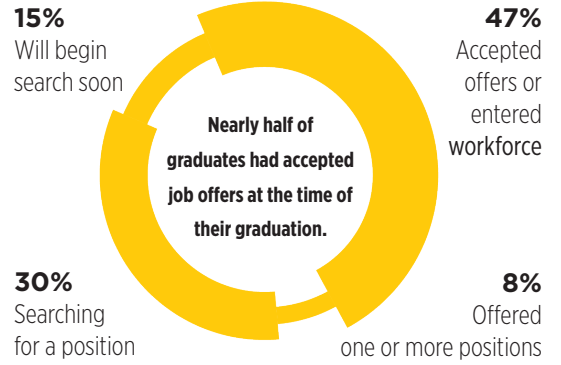

UNDERGRADUATE
Summer 2016-Spring 2017

To gauge the success of our programs, UCF administers the First Destination Survey to all graduating students. For the summer 2016 through spring 2017 Undergraduate classes, 90 percent of 13,210 graduates completed the survey, and here's what they said.

IMMEDIATE PLAN

HEAD START

LOCAL IMPACT

For graduates who planned to enter the workforce, 76 percent accepted a position or are already working in the 11 counties surrounding UCF, and 90 percent will stay in Florida.

RELEVANCE

For graduates who entered the workforce, 83 percent reported taking jobs related to their field of study.

83%

TOP INDUSTRIES

For graduates who reported they were already working or had received a full-time job, here are the top 10 Industries:

- 16% Hospital and Health Care
- 13% Hospitality Services
- 11% Education
- 11% Engineering
- 8% Marketing
- 7% Technology and Computers
- 6% Accounting Services
- 5% Media and Communications
- 5% Non-Profit
- 5% Financial Services

UTILIZING RESOURCES

Respondents were asked to identify all UCF resources that were used, or will be used, to obtain employment.*

*These numbers represent the entire university for 2016/17.

EARNING POTENTIAL

For graduates who reported salary information, the average annual income was:

$42,705